1. A military fuel depot is located at Daesti (on the railroad line Ramnicul Valcea-Sibiu: the first station after Ramnicul Valcea). Situated about 500 meters from the iron bridge on the Olt River, the depot consists of metallic subterranean storage tanks, into which fuel flows through four pipelines directly from the Daesti railroad station. Four fuel tank cars can be unloaded at one time.
2. In the vicinity of the Caineni railroad station is another fuel depot which consists of metallic storage tanks systematically arranged in the rock (sic). Twelve pipelines transport the fuel directly from the Caineni railroad station to the depot area.
